CAR LINES' ROW CALLED PERIL TO TRANSIT MERGER

Companies Dispute Over Values.

BY OSCAR HEWITT.

A fight is brewing between the Chicago City railway, controlling the south side lines, and the Chicago railways' interest in the north and west side lines. Their difficulties, so far kept secret from the public, arise over the money value of their respective properties and consequently the money part each will have in a reorganization of a merger with the elevated roads.

This difference of opinion may be retarding the ending of the receivership of the Chicago Railways company, and may also be interfering with a merger plan. The dispute is over a minimum of $3,800,000 to a maximum of $7,000,000.

Values of 1907 Recalled.

The south side lines were originally valued in 1907 for the purposes of earning dividends and for sale to the city at $21,000,000, and the north and west side lines were valued at $29,000,000. The latter took over some of the county company's trackage within the city and the south side lines extended their influence to the Calumet and South Chicago system with a valuation of $6,000,000 and also to the Southern Street railway with an authorized value of $775,000.

These properties have been extended and improved to the extent of $103,142,765, bringing their total value, as determined by the city's purchase price, to an aggregate of $163,917,765 as of Feb. 1 last, the end of their last fiscal year. Under this purchase price valuation the board of supervising engineers says in its last official statement that the Chicago City Railway is worth $55,800,735, the Chicago Railways $94,447,260, the Calumet and South Chicago $11,787,215, and the Southern $1,802,563, making the aggregate of $163,917,765 for all the surface lines.

Argue Interest Is Too Small.

But interests in the Chicago Railways properties—the west and north side lines—say that their interest in the whole under that plan is only $7.67 per cent, when it should be at least 60 per cent, or more, proper to say. They have advanced two foundations for these claims. First, they say that in 1913 a unified operation was inaugurated under an agreement between the two companies by which the Chicago Railways took 60 per cent of the net earnings and the south side lines 40 per cent.

The south side lines are held to contend that at that time they owned more than 60 per cent of the surface lines, but agreed to the 60-40 division of the property to promote public welfare and obtain the benefits of unified operation and savings in cost.

Claim Sixty-Two Per Cent of Whole.

The Chicago Railways company further argues that in the appraisal of the properties by the public utilities commission in 1919, with its counting of each line and spike, that corporation was about 62 per cent of the surface lines. Furthermore, it is argued that, although the south side lines may be right (although even this is not conceded) regarding the value of its property as a separate system, as a part of the unified system its percentage in fairness must be reduced.

It is thought that sooner or later Federal Judge James H. Wilkerson, whose court protects the Chicago Railways with a receivership, will be called on to express an opinion on this question. If the railways company obtained 60 per cent, its value would be $98,350,659, instead of $94,447,260. If the railways company got 62 per cent, its value would jump to $101,629,014—an increase over the market of the board of supervising engineers of $7,181,754.

Fight May Go to Court.

If the railways company obtained this portion of the $163,917,765, it would have more money than it needs to pay off its bonded indebtedness and would have millions to distribute among its holders of participation certificates, represented by the stock of the company.

This fight between the street car companies has been a private affair so far, and the nature of the negotiations, if any, has not become public. Yet the Chicago Railways company has been in the hands of receivers for nearly two years.

FIRST STOP ON GOOD WILL TOUR IN NICARAGUA

Many Capitals Wait to Greet Him.

BY PHILIP KINSLEY. [Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Palo Alto, Cal., Nov. 18.—[Special.]—The President Elect and Mrs. Hoover, accompanied by their son, Allan, and a party of 31, left Palo Alto at 7:30 o'clock tonight for a two months' tour of Central and South American Republics.

They will be met at Los Angeles tomorrow morning by Ambassador Henry P. Fletcher, representing the state department, and will sail before noon on the U. S. S. Maryland, flagship of the battle fleet.

Mr. Fletcher is bringing a complete itinerary of the voyage with him, as it has been worked out by the state department and the representatives of the various countries to be visited. This is subject to approval or revision by Mr. Hoover.

Certain to Visit Peru.

The first stop is expected to be at Corinto, the Nicaraguan port on the Pacific, unless the invitation from Guatemala is accepted. Halboa, the western end of the Panama canal, is the next stop, and the itinerary south of that to Valparaiso, Chile, is not decided. There are Colombia, Ecuador, and Peru on the way. Callao, the Peruvian port, is certain to be included.

From Valparaiso and Santiago the route of the good will tour will cross the Andes by rail and come out in Buenos Aires, in Argentina. Here there are possible side trips to Uruguay, Paraguay, and Bolivia. The battleship Utah will meet the party on the Atlantic side and go up the coast, stopping first at Rio Janeiro, Brazil, then rounding the continent where rolls the Amazon, passing the French, Dutch, and British possessions on the northeast coast and stopping, probably at Venezuela before crossing the Caribbean to Mexico, Cuba, and home.

Far Reaching Results.

This is the most extensive journey outside the United States ever taken by the President or the President Elect, and its results from a diplomatic and trade standpoint are expected to be great and far reaching.

Mr. Hoover's chief adviser will be Mr. Fletcher, who has served in diplomatic posts in several South American countries. He will also have with him John Griffith Mott of Los Angeles, a prominent Catholic attorney of Spanish descent, who has spent many years in South America and knows the feeling of the people.

George Barr Baker, his friend of European belief and food administration days, will travel as communication aid. Capt. A. T. Baughard will be naval aid. Mr. Hoover's assistant, George Akerson, and Mrs. Hoover's secretary, Ruth Fessler, complete the immediate party. There are 26 newspaper and press association correspondents and camera men included in the party.

Prayers of the chaplain and congregation of the University Memorial church follow the President Elect on this journey. The chaplain, D. C. Gardner, made special reference in his closing prayer this morning to the "gracious pilgrimage of friendship and good will" that Mr. Hoover is undertaking, and then escorted him from the church and bade him goodbye and a safe return to the home land. The congregation sang as its closing hymn: "Hear us when we cry to Thee for those in peril on the sea."

Receive Friends at Tea.

In the afternoon the Hoovers received friends and neighbors at tea and said goodbye. Mr. Hoover expressed his pleasure at the preparations being made for the Palo Alto inauguration special which is being arranged. Town and university folk will make up a special train to go on to Washington for the ceremony.

A group of pacifists or communists, dressed in red sweaters and corduroy trousers, carrying placards denouncing American imperialism, gave a discordant note to Mr. Hoover's departure from Palo Alto.

There were several girls and four or five young men in the group. Secret service men wrested away the placards. The police led the demonstrators away. The placards read: "Fight against imperialism war. Not a cent, not a man, not a gun for imperialism war." and "Hands off Nicaragua. Support the Latin American republics against American imperialism."

Mr. Hoover witnessed the little disturbance and afterwards was shown the placards.

Fletcher Calls Hoover.

San Pedro, Cal., Nov. 18.—[Special.]—Henry P. Fletcher, American ambassador to Italy, arrived here tonight

Professor Gets Elevator Job; Killed in Fall

The operator of an elevator in the hotel building under construction at 14 East Elm street came to work yesterday and failed to note that the elevator had been taken to the upper floors. The operator opened the gate and fell fifteen feet down the shaft. His skull was fractured and he died within a few minutes.

The dead victim was Prof. Daniel J. Ellingsen, 41 years old, who held degrees from three universities in Norway. He was a former post-graduate student of the University of Chicago and formerly a high school principal and a college professor of languages and physics. He was a widower and the father of three children.

Son of Aurora Minister.

Prof. Ellingsen was the son of a Lutheran minister, the Rev. Ludwig Ellingsen of Aurora, and the brother of another, the Rev. Harold Ellingsen, pastor of the Modell Lutheran church here. He was born in Chicago and received his early education here. Then he went to Norway to study. Prof. Ellingsen did post-graduate work at the University of Chicago and taught languages and physics at the Clifton Lutheran college at Clifton, Tex., and at the Lutheran college at Decatur, Ia. At the end of the school year last June he was notified that his course had been dropped from the curriculum.

Unable to Get Teaching Post.

"It was too late then," his brother said last night, "for him to get another teaching position. So he brought two of the children, Barling, 13 years old, and Daniel, 8, to Chicago to stay with his relatives here while he tried to get work as an educator. Everything was filled. Finally, much discouraged, he joined the elevator operators' union and managed to get this job as elevator operator to tide him over until next year. He was skilled in nine languages, and should have had no trouble getting a position if he had known beforehand that he would need one."

Prof. Ellingsen's youngest child, Eugenia, 6 years old, is with a sister in Iowa. His wife died several years ago.

Fights Loop Theater Fire While Crowd Awaits Film

Several hundred patrons of the Pastime theater, 63 West Madison street, were annoyed last night when the film broke in the midst of a comedy and was replaced after a few minutes by a melodrama. Their annoyance might have been changed to gratitude had they known that Jerry Wolf, the film operator, subdued a blaze which consumed the comic film and calmly substituted another so the show might go on.

"HE WHO LAUGHS LAST"—AND ALL THE REST OF IT

Buffalo, N. Y., Nov. 18.—[Special.]—Several days ago a little tin car rattled its way onto the Canadian approach of the Peace Bridge and bumped and jostled across the invisible line in the middle of Niagara river separating waters to customs men. It was choofy of Canadian ale.

"It skidded and alighted to a stop when hailed by United States customs officers. It's lone occupant was clad in a blue coat and a cap. He said he was a Pennsylvania farmer and looked even more bucolic than that. Strapped to the running board was a burly sack that clinked and gurgled. The tin car coughed a couple of coughs, shook itself several times, and wheezed away. The name and address of the owner were not taken.

Today the grapevine brought back disturbing news to customs men. Hidden inside the car, which they were too amused to search, were 250 quarts of good, high proof Canadian whiskey.

The ale was camouflaged and he looked not nearly so dumb as he looked.

Dr. Harding, Father of Late President, Dies

Santa Ana, Cal., Nov. 18.—[Special.]—Dr. George Harding, father of the late president Warren G. Harding, died here this morning at the home of his sister, Mrs. E. E. Remberg, as the result of a paralytic stroke last Friday. He was 85 years old. Dr. Harding came here two weeks ago from Marion, O., to spend the winter.

At the bedside were his wife and sister and a daughter, Mrs. Caroline Votaw of Washington, D. C. A brother at Columbus, O., was in telegraphic communication with the home.

Dr. Harding, who was prominent in fraternal affairs, activities of the Red Cross, and in medical societies, with a lineage that dated back into early American history, was born in Morrow county, Ohio.

THIRTY INJURED, 5 SERIOUSLY, AS BUS HITS AUTO

Paw Paw, Mich., Nov. 18.—[Special.]—Fifty persons were seriously injured and 25 others suffered cuts and bruises when a Greyhound bus, bound from Chicago to Detroit, crashed into an automobile on a slippery pavement five miles east of here tonight.

The Rev. Julian Bonna, pastor of St. Mary's Catholic church at Paw Paw, driver of the automobile, and his housekeeper, Mrs. Mary Letts, were taken to a Kalamazoo hospital. Both are suffering from possible skull fractures and internal injuries. At the same hospital was Miss Pearl Merrick of Greenhut, a bus passenger, who suffered a skull fracture.

Alva Johnson of Battle Creek, Mich., and Lieut. Wilson Dodge of the United States marine corps, whose home is in Muncie, Ind. They are in another Kalamazoo hospital. No Chicagoans were aboard the bus.

A bomb explosion early this morning wrecked the rear entry of a two story brick building at 247-49 East 61st street and broke windows in several near by residences. The second floor at 369 is occupied by the Mitthe Recreation club, which was closed when the blast occurred, and the first floor by Paul Greenhut & Co., a hardware and interior decorating concern.

Greenhut, who resides at 355 East 61st street, hastened to the scene of the bombing. He said he had had no trouble and could not account for the attack. Woldiann police were seeking officials of the Mitthe club for questioning. The damage was estimated at $500.

to board the battleship Maryland tomorrow to accompany Hoover, Ambassador Fletcher's career includes service in the principal South American countries.

"Mr. Hoover's visit to the Latin American countries was nothing less than a master stroke," Ambassador Fletcher said. "His visits to the various countries will do much to cement the bond of friendship existing between South American countries and the United States."

"His journey, undertaken as a mission of good will, has other precedents. You will doubtless recall that President Elect Machado of Cuba and the president elect of Colombia paid visits to the United States in past years. Likewise that former President Taft paid a visit to Panama before he was inaugurated."

"I anticipate a most pleasant journey with Mr. Hoover, with whom I became acquainted when he was secretary of commerce."

U. S. S. Utah Sails for Buenos Aires, Nov. 18.—(Special.)—The battleship Utah of the Atlantic fleet, on board which Herbert Hoover will make his homeward journey from the east coast of South America, sailed from the Brooklyn navy yard today, en route to Hampton Roads, Va., where fuel and stores will be taken aboard in preparation for the trip to Buenos Aires, Argentina, where Mr. Hoover and his party will embark. The Utah, a first line ship, in command of Capt. C. R. Train, carried a complement of 1,000 officers and men.

WANT INAUGURAL POMP

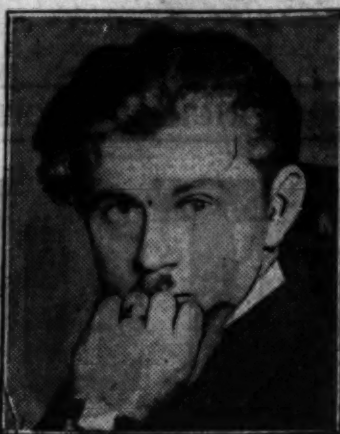

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.] Washington, D. C., Nov. 18.—(Special.)—Unless Herbert Hoover makes an emphatic protest, local interests are determined to usher in his administration with an old fashioned inaugural celebration.

The President Elect has expressed his preference for a simple inauguration but many believe he may consent to a greater amount of pomp and display than has marked the taking of office of recent presidents. The plans call for the revival of the old time parade, and there is agitation also for an inaugural ball.

Not since Woodrow Wilson first assumed the duties of the presidency has there been an inauguration comparable to those of former years, when delegations came by special trains from all sections of the country. War clouds were looming when Wilson was inaugurated the second time, and both Harding and Coolidge frowned on anything of an elaborate character.

In former years it was customary for the states to send their governors, National Guard regiments and bands to participate in the inaugural parade. The recent inaugurations have had only about as much of a parade as was necessary for the proper escort of the retiring and incoming Presidents from the White House to the capitol. Inquiries sent by a local newspaper to Republican national committeemen have brought responses indicating that big delegations will be on hand if Hoover says the word.

MIRRED AUTOISTS PASS NIGHT IN CAR, ENGINE RUNNING; ONE IS DEAD

A cold wind was blowing when the small sedan of John Creek, 38 years old, 2926 West Jackson boulevard, got mired in a swamp at the end of 47th street, Stickney, late Saturday night. Creek's companion, Frank Gorsky, 33 years old, 2514 Cuyler avenue, Berwyn, examined the wheels, which were buried in mud to the axles, and scanned the bleak landscape for a sign of habitation. Then he waded through the muck back to the gasoline tank and looked at the indicator which showed a good fuel supply.

"We'd better stick here for the night," he said to Creek when he got back in the sedan, which was equipped with a heater. "We can keep warm if you leave the engine running."

The engine was still running at daylight yesterday when John Kohout and a party of Stickney hunters passed. They found Creek dead and Gorsky unconscious from carbon monoxide gas from the engine. Gorsky was revived two hours later at the Berwyn hospital.

Edward D. Beals of Neenah Leaves Estate of $300,000

Neenah, Wis., Nov. 18.—(Special.)—The will of the late Edward D. Beals, president of the Hardwood Products corporation at the time of his death several weeks ago, disposes of an estate valued at approximately $300,000 in addition to real estate from which there is an estimated income of $200 a year. The widow and three daughters are the heirs.

JOS. M. PATTERSON BUYS LARGEST AMPHIBIAN PLANE

Curtis Field, L. I., Nov. 18.—(Special.)—Joseph M. Patterson, publisher of the magazine Liberty and the New York Daily News, took title today to the largest amphibian plane ever built, a Sikorsky machine powered with two Pratt and Whitney Hornet motors which develop more than 600 horse power each.

The plane has been named Liberty and will be used by Mr. Patterson and his associates on a number of long flights. The big plane was flown today by Brock Becker, former Curtiss flying service instructor, and Henry White, sales manager for the Sikorsky company. In test flights it has shown a top speed of 140 miles an hour and will maintain level flight on one motor with a full load.

It has luxurious cabin accommodations for nine passengers, is upholstered in leather, and contains, besides comfortable chairs, a leather cushioned divan and two side tables. For some months Mr. Patterson has been taking flying lessons at Curtis field and Becker has been his instructor. Recently he made his first solo flight.

Wealthy Detroit Youths Seized on Auto Charge

Two Detroit youths, said to be of wealthy families, were held here for the St. Louis police last night on a charge of taking a rented automobile out of the state. The prisoners, Sam Clark, 19 years old, son of Daniel Clark, former owner of a chain of Detroit stores, and Neil Simon, 21 years old, son of Charles E. Simon, president of a Detroit investment company, were arrested early yesterday in Michigan on a charge of speeding.

Chicago police learned the youths had left St. Louis five days ago with the car.

Phone Call Brings Arrest of Alleged Dixie Gam Thief

"Send a policeman to the North Western station to arrest Ralph Hillman, who is wanted in Knoxville, Tenn., for murder and robbery," an anonymous informant telephoned the detective bureau last night. Sergeant William O'Neill, provided with a description, found Hillman at the station and arrested him when the fugitive admitted he was wanted for jewelry thefts but not for murder.

Woman Beaten to Death with an Ax by Woman

Wickliffe, Ky., Nov. 18.—(AP)—Mrs. Annie Thornton, 65, was beaten and cut to death with an ax in a coal shed at her home here today. Twenty minutes later Mrs. Lillie Boudreau, 40, who had been living with Mrs. Thornton, was taken into custody and admitted that she had killed the woman.

MR. HARDING "GOLD DOLL" READS A LETTER

With Her Explanation Tells Roman

Letters of Franklin D. Roosevelt, to his son, Mr. Anne E. Livingston, of Tulsa, Okla., dated yesterday by the young man, to her reply to charges that she is a gold digger, and the manufacture of a new legal case, was asked.

After the missives had been read in order that they might be established, Mr. Livingston, began reading. He hopes she's a gold digger.

"I received your letter and am very sorry to hear that I hope you now and can report your Sunday."

Miss Livingston explained for her son that she had not called her mother. He then had sent her a letter. "As far as the apartment, it would be a good thing to be a gold digger."

"This was a little of myself, Miss Livingston, copy."

"The weather is getting but our faithful old butler."

"(Advertisement Livingston scornfully.)"

Hearings to a Son. "I am looking forward to you again and making sure you're not a gold digger."

"A sweet song of love is how I feel about you. I love to see you at the bottom of your heart."

"She turned down $20,000 to settle this case," Miss Livingston explained to a time when the theater and she posed her knees.

"You will certainly with me, dear, that who appreciates your don't want you to go on adventures. You must wonderful experience of and put those sweet lips close those loving eyes."

"There are many people."

THIS EDITOR PUT FREE SPEECH FOE OFF COURT BENCH

Now California Press
Warns Legislature.

San Francisco, Cal., Nov. 18.—(Special.)—California newspaper men, fresh from one bitter fight for the freedom of the press, in which they routed from office all officials involved in sentencing an editor to jail for contempt, today decided to throw the full force of California opinion behind the common cause. The action follows the plan of the Saturday Press in Minneapolis by injunction of the Supreme court there.

Through the California State Press association, an organization composed of editors and owners of newspapers, a resolution was passed to call upon the California legislature to memorialize all interested law making bodies of the danger to American institutions through the Minnesota decision.

Press Club Takes Action.
The Press club of San Francisco, one of the oldest newspaper men's organizations in the United States, also will take a hand in the fight.

California's most recent experience with a judge who had a contempt of court complex was one of the most decisive in all its newspaper history, a complete victory for the press, and it was won at the polls.

The scene was in Humboldt county on the northern California coast, a rugged timber country, where the famous Bret Harte once operated a newspaper and was bold enough to tell in its columns every time the reigning dynasty took too many drinks.

Eureka, principal city in that redwood country, has retained much of the flavor of the days of the Argonauts. Cafes, the old fashioned variety, still operate without molestation and entertainers are permitted to drink with the customers.
Getting such a city halter broken to prohibition has been more difficult for prohibition agents than in either San Francisco or Chicago. The territory has always been regarded as wet.

Criticized Prohibition.
The Humboldt News, a labor weekly published in Eureka, was not in sympathy with methods of prohibition enforcement and through its editor, Alfred Lindsey, criticized methods adopted by two enforcement officers in arresting a woman on a charge of violating the Volstead act.

For the editorial expression he was arrested on a charge of criminal libel by Sheriff Arthur Ross and prosecuted by Arthur W. Hill, district attorney. A jury in the first trial disagreed.

Lindsey burst forth with another editorial, attacking the character of the dry agents after the venire had been drawn for his second trial and before the talesmen had been summoned into court. For this he was brought to court and cited for contempt by Superior Judge Denver Sevier, a monarch in that region, who had been on the bench for 16 years.

1,000 Day Sentence.
The sentence was 1,000 days in jail. Lindsey went to jail. He did not get out for more than a year.

Then came T. P. Magilligan, a San Francisco newspaperman, who took up the editorship of the Humboldt News. He obtained a political ticket to oppose District Attorney Hill, Sheriff Ross, and Judge Sevier. The trio was considered unbeatable. Judge Sevier had been on the bench for more than 12, and Ross for six.

But on the one issue of the contempt sentence alone they all were swept from office by the voters of Humboldt county. In Judge Sevier's place now sits Thomas Selva, friend of Magilligan; S. E. Metzler, Lindsey's attorney, is district attorney.

say, and J. W. Runner is sheriff. Lindsey was turned out of jail and Magilligan as a result of his success became the uncrowned political czar of Humboldt county.

Magilligan's one act before leaving Eureka to return to his old newspaper job was to have indicted and convicted on charges of falsification of election registration one Frank L. Vandusen, prominent lumber dealer and head of the law enforcement league of Humboldt county, a dry organization.

The testimony showed that Vandusen had been exercising all the privileges of voting for many years in the United States when in fact he was a citizen of Canada and had never been naturalized.

Instead of sending Vandusen to San Quentin on the felony conviction Judge Selva granted him probation on condition that he refrain from political activities of any kind.

DIVORCED WIFE REWEDES; FATHER CLAIMS HIS SON

Leaves for Florida with Court Order.

Armed with an order awarding him custody of his son because his divorced wife, by remarrying, has forfeited her right to keep him, Marshall Lee Lee was reported leaving for Florida last night. The boy, Marshall Lee Lee Jr., 4 years old, is with his mother in Fort Pierce, Fla. Mr. Lee is a son of John H. Lee, well known lawyer of the firm of Dyrenforth, Lee, Christian & Wiles.

When Lee and his wife, Mrs. Margaret Letta Lee, protégé and niece of the late F. C. Letta, millionaire grocer, were divorced in April, 1924, the divorce provided that the mother should have the child nine months of the year and the father should have custody during the vacation period. But there was a clause that the first party to remarry should forfeit to the other the right to keep the child.

Recently Mrs. Lee married Lawrence P. Van Valkenburg, son of a wealthy Florida realtor. On Saturday, Lee went before Judge William N. Gemmill and petitioned for custody of the boy. In addition to citing the divorce decree, he asserted that he was able to provide luxurious surroundings for his son.

Lee explained that he could house the boy in his home at 318 Forest avenue, Oak Park, where there are spacious grounds. He declared he feared for the safety of his son in "the hurricane-ridden area of Florida." The boy would be given the best of school and care, he promised the judge. Attorney Frank E. Cantwell, who represented Mrs. Lee at the divorce hearing, appeared for her before Judge Gemmill. He declared his client had every wish to live up to provisions of the decree, but declared her love for her son was so great that she had wished to keep him with her.

Lee and his former wife were students at the University of Wisconsin when they met, fell in love, and married.

FAVORS MARTIAL LAW TO DRY UP NEW YORK STATE

New York, Nov. 18.—(Special.)—The "referendum" on Nov. 6 has demonstrated prohibition is here to stay. Supreme Court Justice John Ford declared in an address at the Good Shepherd Presbyterian church last night. He held renewal of the Mullins-Gage enforcement law is needed in this state to do away with the "infamous lawlessness which is all around us."

"The results of the late election should convince the most bigoted foe of prohibition that no longer are the advocates of the national outlaws of intoxicating beverages called upon to fight for the maintenance of that policy," the justice asserted.

"If any election can be taken as a referendum, the vote on Nov. 6th must be so taken. But must we continue to wallow in speakeasies, night clubs and collateral dens of vice and crime, debauching the rising generation and

AUTO RAMS TWO OTHERS DISABLED IN CRASH; 2 DIE

Road Near Elgin Scene of Double Accident.

Two men were killed and two others were seriously injured early yesterday when the 19 year old son of a wealthy Elgin coal dealer drove a sedan into two automobiles that had just crashed in front of the Broadview tavern on the Fox river trail, a few miles from Elgin. The dead:

Joseph Wesso, 26 years old, of Aurora. Harold Meding, 26 years old, 185 1st street, Dundee.

The injured: Clark Poole, 185 Oregon street, Dundee. John Nelson of St. Charles.

Wesso, accompanied by Meding, was driving south on the highway when his automobile collided with another occupied by Nelson and Poole. The machines were smashed, but none of the occupants were seriously hurt. A crowd, including merrymakers from the tavern, surrounded the wrecked cars. Then the sedan, driven by William Mitchell Jr., loomed up out of the darkness at high speed. There was another smashup. The on-lookers were scattered. It was believed that Meding and Wesso died in the second crash.

Mitchell and three companions with him were arrested by highway police and taken to Elgin. They were released on bonds of $10,000, set to insure their presence at an inquest today. Poole, whose injuries were regarded as possibly fatal, was taken to an Elgin hospital, as was Nelson. The latter, it is expected, will recover. In Cook county five deaths due to automobile accidents were recorded, increasing the toll since Jan. 1 to 598. The victims:

Louis Hauberliet, 38 years old, 3238 West 63d street. Struck by a car at 6100 West 63d street and hurled into the path of another. He died soon afterward. Neither driver stopped, but the second one, Peter Laigas, 6220 Massasoit avenue, was traced by a license number and is being held.

Michael Dunn, 47 years old, 4928 South Ashland avenue. Killed when he was struck as he got off a surface car at 49th street and Ashland avenue. The alleged driver, Frank Mayernowski, 4803 South Winchester avenue, was arrested later at his home. The police declared he failed to stop.

Mrs. William Treder, 79 years old, widow living alone at 437 Des Plaines avenue, Forest Park. Fatally injured by a "vampire" car as she stepped from the curb in front of her home. The driver made no move to stop.

Jacob Tennison, 69 years old, 1140 West Madison street. Died of injuries suffered Saturday when he was struck at Irving Park boulevard and Mozart street. Arvid Leas, 3710 North Mozart street, the driver, was held.

Unidentified man. Struck and killed at Archer and Sawyer avenues. Stephen Drechney, 2034 Walton street, said that his car struck the man, but that he was lying in the street and had apparently already been knocked down by another automobile.

DETECTIVE SLAIN, HIS 2 MATES SHOT IN STREET BATTLE

Baltimore, Md., Nov. 13.—(AP)—A Baltimore detective sergeant was killed, two others wounded, and an alleged New York gunman, wanted there for the wounding of a policeman in a pistol battle last Tuesday night, was wounded, probably fatally, in a gun battle in a downtown street tonight near the central police station.

The shooting started when Henry Peterson, who had been arrested by Sergt. Fred Carroll, broke away and pulling a pistol, opened fire. The first bullet carried away part of Carroll's ear. The detective grappled with the man. Sergts. Joseph Carroll and Elmer O'Grady appeared around a corner of the police station and opened fire. Peterson returned the fire, wounding Joseph Carroll. Then O'Grady went down with a bullet in his leg. Joseph Carroll, shooting from the ground, with his brother officers continued the fire, but Peterson, wounded in six places, continued his shooting until his pistol was empty. He was then overpowered by other officers. Joseph Carroll, who had been ill, died a few minutes after being admitted to a hospital from the effects of shock. Physicians held little hope for Peterson's recovery. He was wounded in more than a dozen places.

Parents Find Baby Girl Smothered Under Quilt

When Clifford Higby and his wife, 8113 Princeton avenue, went into the bedroom yesterday afternoon to look at their 3 months' old daughter, Joan, they found the baby lying face down, smothered to death beneath the quilt.

SMITH ATTENDS BILOXI CHURCH; PASTOR PRAISES

Edgewater Gulf Hotel, Miss., Nov. 13.—(AP)—Alfred E. Smith settled down today to the life of a winter vacationist determined to rebuild his campaign worn body.

Residents along the gulf have taken him at his word that he wished to be let alone. They are leaving him in peace.

He adhered to his steadfast custom of attending Sunday church by driving to Biloxi for the 11 o'clock service at the Church of the Nativity. There he was met at the curb by the Rev. Father Peter Keenan, who escorted him through the small crowd gathered to a front pew.

After the service the minister addressed the congregation, saying he wished to say a word of welcome to the "big and good hearted man who is with us today." "This is a man," he added, as he smiled on the governor, "who in defeat has been victorious. Alfred E. Smith has done more for Americanism and Catholicism than any other man in American history. He has broken down prejudice and intolerance." Gov. Smith remained at ease for the remainder of the day with the exception of a short round of golf.

HIT BY STRAY BULLET.
Charles Michalek, 25 years old, a laborer of 4821 Saratow avenue, was mysteriously wounded by a stray bullet last night while walking near his home. He told police he had heard no shots.

M'SWIGGIN CASE PROBE MAY WAIT ON NEW CORONER

Although the long delayed inquest into the murder of William H. McSwiggin, assistant state's attorney, will reconvene today, at the summons of Coroner Oscar Wolf, it is probable that the inquiry will be postponed again until after Dr. Herman N. Bunden, coroner elect, takes office, it was predicted yesterday.

The jury, composed of prominent business and professional men, will give as their formal reason that insufficient evidence has been gathered, it was said. Attorney Otto Bahr has been named to take the place of Wyllis W. Baird, who died since the jury was sworn in, it was announced.

RIMLESS WHITE GOLD Glasses now most favored

A great betterment in eyeglass design has taken place in recent years.

Rimless glasses, in four styles of delicate, graceful design, feature fitting and youth enhancing, have supplanted in public favor the heavy shell-rimmed glasses formerly worn.

These rimless styles, the Puritan, Oval, Colonial and Leaf shape, come with inconspicuous white gold mountings. They are unobtrusive, they do not attract attention to themselves, hence to wear them is a principle of good taste. Compare your old glasses with these at any Almer Coe Store. There are now more than twenty styles that you may choose from.

SECRET OF "NEW COTTON" FOUND IN BIRD'S NEST

Britain Expects Fiber to Revive Mills.

BY JOHN STEELE.
(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)
LONDON, Nov. 18.—The cotton industry of the southern states of America may suffer a severe setback if the new product to replace cotton, which has been produced by the English developers of a cotton substitute prove well founded. The new product to replace cotton is a vast improvement on the original weed imported eight years ago.

GAS FUMES KILL TOWNS.
Kenosha, Wis., Nov. 18.—(Special.)—Gas from a water heater brought death to Gaspar Gabriel, 19, today. He was found dead in a bedroom at the home of John Marzucco, where he roomed.

The plant also produces by-products for use in making parchment, light building materials, and drugs. A company has been formed to exploit the "cotton" substitute and appears to have a monopoly for some time, at least, since the present plant represents a vastly improved form of the original weed imported eight years ago.

The Yorkshire and Lancashire cotton mills, which in late years have been much of their export trade, hope to regain their old standing by use of the "artificial cotton."

Between 3,000,000 and 4,000,000 pounds of the new product is now growing in Essex and Sussex, which will be offered to the cotton spinners in July at twelve cents per pound, eight cents per pound less than the present price.

The present machinery can be used without alteration. Like ordinary cotton, the substitute blends with silk, artificial silk, or wool. It not only takes the most delicate dyes, but absorbs only a third of the amount of water necessary in dyeing cotton, thus saving a considerable saving.

The "cotton substitute" was discovered in British Guiana, where the natives were found making nests of the fiber of a plant of the cocoa family. The fiber is strikingly similar to cotton. Cultivation of the plant was begun in England, and tests have been satisfactory. Enough has now been planted to supply several of the important mills.

ESCAPE DEATH IN AUTO PLUNGE 50 FT. TO RIVER

Baltimore, Md., Nov. 18.—(AP)—Dr. Joseph C. Bloodgood, internationally noted surgeon and cancer specialist; his wife, Mrs. Bayard Turnbull of Rogers Forge, Md., a guest, and Henry Richardson, Negro chauffeur, all narrowly escaped death today when their auto plunged from a bridge at Harper's Ferry, W. Va., and dropped 50 feet to the Potomac river.

All of the occupants of the car were slightly injured. They were brought to a Baltimore hospital.

Mrs. Bloodgood suffered a broken knee cap, which Dr. Bloodgood set at the scene with the aid of a nurse who was passing. The physician escaped serious injury. Mrs. Turnbull and the chauffeur were badly bruised. A Negro youth who was sitting on the guard rail of the bridge was thrown into the river when the car hit the rail.

U. S. AND ITALY CHECK SICILIAN RUSH TO AMERICA

Some Clandestine Migration Goes On.

BY DAVID DARRAH.
(Chicago Tribune From Service.)
(Copyright, 1928, By The Chicago Tribune.)

PALERMO, Nov. 18.—Most of the Sicilians would rather be in the United States, judging from the sentiments expressed to me haphazardly during the two weeks' tour of the principal towns and judging from the volume of applications for visas to our consulate. On the other hand, few Sicilians get to the United States at the present for two reasons: First, that the Johnson bill quota allows but 3,545 Italians to enter the United States annually; second, the Mussolini government on its own account restricts emigration.

Slightly more than a fifth, that is, out of 2,445 Italian emigrants annually to the United States, 725 were Sicilians, bearing naturally the clandestine emigration which the authorities say is consistent but not voluminous.

How Quota Is Divided.
Out of these 725 Sicilian emigrants to the United States 410 were what are called first preference, according to our legislation, that is, Sicilians who have Italian relatives in the United States who have become American citizens. Three hundred and ten were second preference, or relatives of Sicilians in the United States who have announced their intention of becoming citizens. Eight were ordinary emigrants with no connections in the United States.

Through the insistence of the American officials with whom the Italian emigration inspectors cooperate, practically all the quota of Italian emigration falls under the first two categories now, that is, Italians who are joining relatives in America who have either become or announced they are becoming American citizens.

Much Private Graft.
There were no special methods of selection observed by the Italian authorities in determining who shall go. In fact, a great amount of private graft is going on in passports being issued by Italians to those who are willing to pay for them. One emigrant told me he paid $1,000 to get a passport. American immigration therefore offers a lucrative trade to certain unscrupulous officials, but in most cases prospective emigrants are willing to pay.

Before issuing a visa for these high priced passports the American authorities made a careful scrutiny of each applicant, inquiring as to his criminal record, medical history, financial status, literacy, etc. In addition to the regular quota since last July the American authorities have granted visas to the United States to 988 returning aliens, of whom 730 were wives of American citizens.

Limit of Choice.
In general the American authorities control over the choice and character of immigrants is limited to insistence on the emigrant being what is called first or second preference.

Some clandestine emigration is going on. Both here and in Calabria and Naples Italian groups frequently are nabbed by the Italian police, who for a consideration of money had agreed to smuggle emigrants across. Many times the deals are pure swindle. After getting the money the swindlers abandon the prospective emigrants. The Italian police are ruthless with these clandestine emigration promoters. On the other hand, some get by.

Seized in Harbors.
A case was reported recently of eighteen clandestine emigrants getting through, hidden in barrels in which they made the voyage and were fed by an arrangement with members of the crew. Some members of the Mafia who are hunted like animals here may get to the United States in the clandestine way by making arrangements with the crews of Italian ships or through getting jobs as sailors, then deserting in foreign ports.

Difficulties frequently arise here through differences in the Italian and American law about what constitutes citizenship. Our law holds any one born on American soil is an American. The Italian law holds that sons of Italians in America, whether naturalized or unaturalized, are still Italians. When these sons come back to Italy, despite the possession of full credentials as American citizens, they are compelled to do service in the Italian army.

On the whole there is little evidence here that emigrants of bad character are getting to the United States. The business is given strict surveillance both by the American and Italian emigration authorities.

SPEAKEASIES ARE EASY TO FIND IN
NATION'S CAPITALLiquor Sold Over Bar,
Newspaper Finds.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 18.—[U. P.]—Speakeasies flourish here almost under the eyes of Mrs. Mabel Willebrandt and other high officials engaged in prohibition enforcement, according to the report made by an investigator of the Washington Post appearing with this edition.

The article mentioned specified places where liquor is being sold over the bar.

Get Liquor Anywhere.

Washington, up to a year ago, was the most law abiding community in the country," the article said.

There was drinking going on, of course, as there is drinking everywhere, but it was secret. Now, anyone who knows the ropes may find liquor anywhere in the downtown district and get liquor.

Any kind of liquor can be purchased by the drink if the would-be purchaser knows where to look for it, the article states.

Washington speakeasies seem to be a step ahead of those in other cities in that the patrons they attract are about the same quality as the best it is possible to procure in the open bootleg market," the Post explained.

Passable Hooch Is a Drink. Prices very according to the neighborhood in which the speakeasy is located. Along the waterfront passable whiskey is sold for 10 cents a drink, and in the more fashionable section it brings as high as $1, the Post said.

The Post quoted a federal agent as saying: "It would take the entire police force of Washington ever on the alert to rid the city of speakeasies. Even then I doubt if it could be done. If there were an arrest every hour of the day and night and 24 places closed a day, 24 new places would open on the morrow."

Report Kaiser's Son Weds
Clara Schwartz, American

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)
BERLIN, Nov. 18.—The Welt am Montag announces the former Kaiser's son, Prince Eitel Friedrich, today married an American white haired grandmother, Mrs. Clara Schwartz, whose first husband was the American coffee king Herman Sienken. Her second husband was the opera singer Joseph Schwartz. The prince is 43 years old. He was divorced by his first wife, Duchess Marie Charlotte of Oldenburg. The prince's private secretary said: "The story cannot be true. It is out of the question." The Welt am Montag, however, maintains it is true.

MIDWEST FLOODS TAKE NINE LIVES; LOSS, MILLIONS

Still Others Missing; Cold
Wave Adds to Perils.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 18.—(U.P.)—Week end floods in Missouri, Kansas and Oklahoma tonight had claimed at least nine lives and caused damage that will run into millions of dollars. Although the worst danger was over at most points, a cold wave that followed the torrential rainfall made the plight of hundreds of refugees and relief workers pitiable tonight.

Besides the known nine dead, several persons missing were believed to have drowned. Farmers suffered the heaviest property losses. Many cities and towns were isolated, with highways and railroad tracks and communication lines obstructed.

Augusta, Kas., appeared to have suffered damages amounting to $450,000. The White Eagle Oil Refinery and Santa Fe railroad were heavy losers.

List of Known Dead.

The known dead:
Dr. Ralph Shimas.
Dr. J. Ward Smith.

Mrs. C. G. Jones and her two small daughters, drowned near Ottawa, Kas., when a boat capsized.

A. R. Hudson, Joplin, Mo., drowned near Paola, Kas., when his motor car was swept into flood waters.

C. E. King, coal miner, killed when he slipped and fell against a high voltage wire near Mulberry, Kas.

Mrs. J. Payne, drowned when crossing a swollen stream near Hartshorne, Okla. J. Payne, her husband, and

FLORENCE TRUMBULL AND PARENTS LEAVE AFTER 2 DAY VISIT

Mrs. Florence Trumbull, still insisting that her engagement to John Coolidge has not been announced, left Chicago at 11 o'clock last night for New Orleans after spending two days as the guest of a former schoolmate, Mrs. Andrew Sanderson II.

Gov. and Mrs. J. H. Trumbull of Connecticut, their daughter, Florence, and the governor's son, Col. C. H. Allen, arrived here Saturday en route to New Orleans, where Gov. Trumbull will attend a governors' conference. During their visit here, Gov. and Mrs. Trumbull were guests of the South Shore Country Club.

Mrs. Trumbull was entertained at dinner yesterday by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Houston, 5733 Sheridan road, with whom Mr. and Mrs. Sanderson make their home. Mrs. Sanderson was formerly Miss Annamae Houston. Miss Trumbull was also guest of honor at a tea at the Arts Club Saturday afternoon, attended by Mrs. Jacob Bear and Miss Anne Morgan, and Saturday night at a dinner at the South Shore.

their child, who were riding in the same wagon, which was capsized in the swollen waters, were missing tonight. The woman's body was found far downstream.

Mrs. Grace Tucker, drowned when she stepped off her porch near Wellington, Mo., into flood waters.

Still Others Missing.

At Augusta, Kas., search was being made for Charles Waterman, who plunged into the water when flames drove him from the burning Santa Fe pumping house.

Rumors of several deaths from drowning at Winfield, Kas., could not be verified, as the town was divided into sections by flood waters. From other parts of Kansas rumors of deaths were heard.

BOY AND DOG ON SEASWEPT ROCK 36 HOURS; SAVED

LONDON, Nov. 18.—(U.P.)—England today saw no sign of the storm recurrence which had been forecast, but learned of five additional deaths, bringing the total to 41. Five members of the crew of the small Liverpool schooner Mary Ann were drowned when the gale drove the vessel on the Dulas rocks.

John Woodier, a boy of 17, was the only member of the crew who succeeded in clambering upon the few square yards of rock which stood above the raging seas. The dog that the schooner carried also made its way to safety and was Woodier's sole companion for 36 hours while they remained foodless on the desolate rock.

At last a Liverpool pilot boat sighted the shirt which Woodier was frantically waving to attract their attention. They took him off, although heavy seas still were running.

Storm Death Toll Reaches 50.

PARIS, Nov. 18.—(U.P.)—The toll of a four day storm, which took the lives of more than 50 persons in Europe, lashed the coast of France today, battering sea and land communications and wrecking a number of buildings.

Two sailors in the naval encampment at Pecamp, France, on the English channel, were washed from their boat and carried out to sea at the height of the storm today. Both were drowned.

At Brest two workmen repairing a wire line were struck by lightning and killed. At Hazebrook three houses were washed away by the rain.

Wireless messages received at Dunkirk indicated two schooners had been abandoned by their crews. One vessel was at Sables d'Olonne, on the Bay of Biscay, and the other was wrecked apparently in the same vicinity. The crews of both vessels were saved. The reports said.

Five men were drowned in a terrific gale which wrecked and sunk a fishing boat off the coast of Spain, dispatches from Aviles, Spain, said.

BANDITS SHOOT AT VICTIM.

Two bandits who attempted to hold up Robert Doherty in front of his home at 5321 Ella avenue early yesterday fired three shots at him when he broke away and ran into his house, but did not hit him. They escaped in an automobile.

Stops NOSE SHINE For All Day

EVERY woman who has been embarrassed with a shiny skin will welcome NEZON. From Paris comes this amazing new beauty sensation. Those who have been recently abroad or in New York beauty salons have heard "that no toilet is now complete without it. It is as indispensable as face powder."

A Skin Instantly Lovely
Now it is available to everyone, everywhere. Instantly at the touch of a moistened finger it removes every particle of shine and leaves the skin marvelously soft, gloriously stunning. It ends the greatest embarrassment of all—shiny nose.

NEZON should be used on the nose and if you wish on forehead, chin, neck and hands. Eliminates varnish. Freckles disappear like magic. Wrinkles are subdued. And the skin is instantly clear, fresh and beautiful.

Makes Powder Stick
One application of Nezon lasts all day or evening. It ends the need for constant powdering. It is harmless. And invisible. It is neither a cream nor a grease. It is not a "white". Nor an astringent. It never clogs the pores and its constant use betters even a fine skin.

Nezon comes in the most delightful little purple-vanilla in Royal purple and gold. You may get it for $1.00 (enough for two months' use) at Walgreen's and Economical Drug Stores.

GRAFTERS MOAN AS ROUMANIAN CHIEF CLEANS UP

Peasant Leader to Slash
Pay Rolls in Half.

BY JAY ALLEN.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]
[Copyright, 1923, by The Chicago Tribune.]
BUCHAREST, Roumania, Nov. 18.—The new peasant régime has begun the mammoth and possibly hopeless task of cleaning out the Augean stables left by ten years of quasi-oriental dictatorship by the Brătianu brothers. Committed by the country's indignant peasantry to the "purification," to use the campaign slogan, of one of the most corrupt political systems in Europe, Premier Iuliu Maniu and his ministers immediately fell to work over the thankless, even dangerous business. In many cases they expect to slash expenditures one-third and cut the pay rolls in half.

Even Doorkeeper Has Auto.
Loud, anguished cries issued from the pampered functionaries of the lawless ministry of agriculture when the peasant freer, Ion Mihalache, the new minister, got his shovels into action.

One of the most radical members of the otherwise fairly moderate cabinet, Minister Mihalache happened to look out of a window during the inventory of the perquisites of his Liberal predecessor. He saw exactly thirty-six fine motor cars, mostly American, drawn up in military formation.

"What is all this—an automobile show?" he roared.

"No, they merely are town cars belonging to the department," he was informed. "Two are for you—the big blue one and the cream one—two for each of your three undersecretaries, one department car, one for the chief doorkeeper, one for the widow of the minister who had this job years ago—"

"Enough!" snapped the peasant leader, purple with indignation. "Sell them—all but one—before nightfall!" Berates "White Collar Parasites."

"Imagine this in a famine year, when the peasants haven't enough to buy food or clothes, much less agricultural implements, without which we cannot increase production! It certainly is a pretty thing, having white collar parasites from the ministry riding in automobiles to the capital's night clubs in handsome American autos supplied and kept up by the state," M. Maniu said.

The new peasant incumbent also discovered that he had a fancy legal corps of seventy-eight lawyers on his ministry's pay roll. When summoned to appear, only eight showed up. The rest, it appears, never existed.

Many Liberals Lose Jobs.
Many big Liberal appointees, including the world's champion election fixer and a high class censor, are minus their jobs. The former is Gen. Davila, commander of the gendarmerie and lord high campaign manager of the Brătianus. With the overthrow of an epoch he was able, it is said, to produce a crushing Liberal majority in constituencies where bona fide Liberals could not be found with bloodhounds.

The other is M. Marinascu, chief of the postoffice, who is a born censor and is reputed actually to be able to read the minds of foreign correspondents, in addition to their letters and dispatches. He was so efficient that one week he just consigned to the wastebasket everything looking like news, on general principles.

The Liberal nabobs, who have taken the count bitterly, are predicting that

M. Maniu's reforms will not be popular and may result in the overthrow of the new government.

"We know Roumania," they cynically aver.

Premier Maniu's reforms may be dangerous, but developments in the provinces revealed that the government is forced to act by the peasants. Triumphant mobs in districts where Liberal mayors and tax collectors still are in office, invade government buildings and throw the "oppressors" into the streets.

With the elections less than a month off, the Liberal candidates dare not venture into the country to electioneer for fear of being manhandled by the peasants. Ministers of the Interior Vaida Vasileviciu, however, promises soon to have the situation in hand, and assures a fair campaign.

Fire Mine Director for Fraud.
BUCHAREST, Nov. 18.—(AP)—Minister of Commerce Madge Rusa has suspended the director general of the mines department in Demashia on charges of fraud in connection with oil lands.

Five Persons Are Killed in Grade Crossing Crash
Colby, Kas., Nov. 18.—(AP)—Mrs. Don Ayres and four other persons were killed in a grade crossing accident at Ogem, Kas., today.

Train Kills 3 in Auto.
New Iberia, La., Nov. 18.—(AP)—Joseph A. Hobart, 48, his wife, and their adopted son, Moss Lacombe, 20, were killed here tonight when a Southern Pacific train hit their automobile at a street crossing.

EMMERSON BACK FROM VACATION PHEASANT HUNT

Will Tackle Problems of State in Week.

Wind-blown but happy in the success of a week's pheasant hunting and his freedom from political cares, Governor Eliot L. Emmerson returned to Chicago last night from South Dakota. After chatting an hour with friends in the Union station he took another train to Springfield to resume his duties as secretary of state.

"I haven't talked politics except for a brief discussion of some of the subjects I intend to include in my inaugural message," he said, "and it will be at least another week before I will be ready to tackle the tasks involved in organizing a state administration."

Ready for Work Soon.

"Right now I'm going back to my present office to take care of matters requiring my attention there, and then I shall try to get in a few days of duck shooting and a little golf. Then I'll be ready for work. I've shaken off the effect of the campaign pretty well and I'm sure I'll be at my post when I settle down to the effort to carry out my campaign pledge to give the state the best administration of which I am capable."

Finis Shooting Excellent.

The governor's latest reported excellent shooting on the farm of J. S. Carver near Bonilla, S. D., and every member of the party got his limit each day.

William J. Stratton, elected to succeed Mr. Emmerson as secretary of state, dropped off the North Western train at Rondout to go to his home at Lehigh.

OTTINGER SENDS BEST WISHES TO VICTORIOUS FOE

New York Nov. 18.—(AP)—Albert Ottinger, the Republican candidate for governor, today conceded his defeat and sent a telegram to Franklin D. Roosevelt, his successful opponent, at Warm Springs, Ga., congratulating him on his victory in the election.

At the same time Mr. Ottinger issued the following statement: "With the official canvass of votes nearly completed, it is apparent now that the final result will vary but slightly from that indicated by the unofficial returns a few days following the election."

"The winning candidate is practically maintaining through the official canvass his margin of less than one-half of one per cent of the total votes of over 4,000,000."

SEEK SON OF DEAD WOMAN.

"Please notify Raymond Austin of Chicago that his mother is dead," was the message in a telegram received at the detective bureau yesterday. It was signed by James Weisler, 2nd Front street, Mendota, Wis.

FIFIELD MUST REORGANIZE

Stocks to be liquidated

We are preparing for a great event. As soon as possible after January 1st, Fifield & Stevenson will announce (to the citizens of Chicago and a host of friends throughout the United States) a merchandising service carefully calculated to fulfill the dreams of men who know and appreciate fine things—men who pride in the possession of the intimate character-expressing articles of apparel which cannot be found in the average store. Before this program of augmented service, can be inaugurated, it is essential that we sacrifice our complete Christmas stocks regardless of profit or previous prices. This means that Fifield quality merchandise is available now—at the very height of the season—at prices which seldom prevail even in after-holiday clearances. E.R. Fifield

Prices That Will Force the Sale Are Now in Effect on the Following:

Suits • Overcoats • Topcoats • Raincoats • Full Dress Clothes
Sport Suits • Tuxedos • Neckwear • Underwear • Hats • Caps
Shirts • Pajamas • Knickers • Golf Hose • Belts • Sweaters
Handkerchiefs • Scarfs • Flannels • Collars • Robes • Gowns
Hosiery • Mufflers • Cuff Links • Walking Sticks • Cigar Lighters
Flasks • Studs • Novelties

Considering the prices which prevail throughout our two stores we suggest early selection. For even our $300,000.00 stock will rapidly be depleted.

NELSON TAKES PLACE OF SLAIN LABOR LEADER

Chicago Union Chiefs Bow
at Bier of Clay.

Alfred P. Nelson, vice president of the Chicago Federation of Labor, has accepted an offer to become executive secretary of the Laundry and Dryhouse Chauffeurs' union to succeed John W. Clay, who was shot to death at his desk in the union headquarters last Friday.

This announcement was made early this morning by the organization's executive committee following a special meeting called at 12:30 a. m. Jean R. Frank, corresponding secretary, issued a statement that Ald. Nelson had temporarily accepted the post. Nelson and his wife have been traveling in the north for the last week. Mr. Frank said the union leaders had obtained the acceptance of their offer in a telephone conversation with him in Louisville.

Labor Honors Slain Leader.
The body of Clay lay in state at the union headquarters, 629 South Ashland avenue, yesterday while Capt. Matthew McGuire of Maxwell street police presided over the search for clues in his assassination. During the day scores of persons from every walk of life filed through the union offices and past the bier of the dead leader.

At times during the afternoon the crowd was so large that extra police were detailed about the building. For many years Clay was well known in Chicago labor circles, and his friends were numerous. It was declared by John C. Fitzpatrick, president of the Chicago Federation of Labor, and by other labor officials.

Labor Chiefs Honor Clay.
Members of the Chicago federation marched in a body to the Ashland avenue headquarters after adopting a resolution of eulogy to Clay and adjourning their bi-monthly conference. It was said to be the first instance in Chicago of the body of a slain labor chief lying in state at his organization headquarters.

Mr. Clay was a "true and loyal union man, honest, capable, and fearless in executing the duties intrusted to him," said the federation resolution. "He was kind, sympathetic, and responsive to those in distress; a good father, a loving husband, a true friend, and an exemplary citizen."

Follow Gangster Crew.
Capt. John Ryan of the detective bureau, in immediate charge of the case investigation, said he was working on the theory that Clay had stood in the way of north side gangsters who were striving to dominate the clothing and dyeing industry. No suspects were being held by police last night, though several witnesses whose names were withheld are to be questioned today, it was said.

John W. Clay, son of the slain man, denied yesterday that he made statements attributed to him to the effect that his father was not on good terms with Albert Davis, head of the Retail Cleaners' and Dyers' union. His father had no enemies to his knowledge, Clay said.

Eastbound Wolverine Is Derailed; 4 Persons Hurt

Becket, Mass., Nov. 18.—Four persons were slightly injured when eight cars of the Wolverine express, east bound from Chicago and carrying 137 passengers, were derailed near here today. The accident occurred when the express sidetracked onto cars of a freight train which had become derailed just as the express was passing.

LEPER CURED OF DISEASE; ABOUT TO START HOME

Once Fought Cure with Rifle.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 18.—(AP)—The United States public health service today announced John Early, 54 year old North Carolina mountaineer, whose many escapes from leper colonies caused consternation among health officials, had "recovered" from leprosy. "In scientific parlance his leprosy is arrested," said a statement issued by the health service. The announcement termed Early's case as "another triumph in modern medicine," and credited the mountaineer's "eccentricities" with having contributed much to the passage of the law placing lepers under care of the public health service.

Early, who once resisted with a rifle efforts to confine him in the national leper home at Carville, La., where he recovered, will return this month to his home in the mountains near Tyson, N. C., free from the disease but carrying its scars.

Microscopic tests of his blood and tissues show the disease has been "arrested," and it was stated: "There is no danger of a relapse, however, as since 1921 only one recovered leper discharged from the Carville institution has suffered a recurrence of the disease."

Early's recovery was brought about by the injection of chaulmoogra oil.

WALKER'S "TIME LIMIT" ENDS IN ROTHSTEIN CASE

No Arrests Are Made for Death of Gambler.

New York, Nov. 18.—(Special.)—Investigation of the murder of Arnold Rothstein, the gambler, entered its third week today. The four day period, in which Mayor Walker ordered the police to show results or admit defeat ends tomorrow.

Those in charge of the investigation are wondering what action the mayor will take. Early last week the police credited at least one arrest and this has not materialized.

Still Looking for McManus.
Inspector John D. Coughlin, in charge of the detective bureau, was today waiting for George McManus, the gambler who sent the telephone call from the Park Central hotel on the night of Nov. 4 which lured Rothstein from Lindy's restaurant to his death. Tonight the detectives admitted they were as far from McManus as they were at any time during their investigation.

Inspector Coughlin and other detectives are in hope that the trip of Detective Edward Fitzgerald to Chicago may be fruitful of results. Fitzgerald's trip has to do with the activities of two Chicago gangsters who were said to have been in New York about the time Rothstein was shot.

SEEK WOMAN HERE.
Detective John Fitzgerald and three other New York detectives left Chicago for Detroit yesterday after a fruitless search for Mrs. Ruth Keyes, a young woman who is believed to have lured Arnold Rothstein, millionaire gambler, to his death in the Park Central hotel in New York.

The New York detectives came to Chicago after they had received information that Mrs. Keyes, said to be the wife of an Illinois Central brakeman, was living here. She is said to have visited the room in the Park Central hotel in which Rothstein was shot on the night of the murder, leaving after she had had a few drinks with three men there.

Detective Fitzgerald was given "1046 East 86th place" as Mrs. Keyes' address here, but the address is fictitious. A search of loop hotels had already failed to reveal any trace of her. Fitzgerald left for Detroit yesterday to investigate a report that the woman was living there.

NEW CHURCH AT CHAMPAIGN TO OPEN WEDNESDAY

Champaign, Ill., Nov. 18.—(Special.)—The new $250,000 St. John's Catholic church, adjoining the University of Illinois campus, will be dedicated Wednesday morning with many noted clergymen from Chicago and down state participating.

The mass of dedication will be said by the Rt. Rev. Edmund M. Dunne, bishop of Peoria. The consecration of the main altar will be by the Rt. Rev. Henry Althoff, bishop of Belleville, and the dedicatory sermon will be by the Rt. Rev. James Griffin, bishop of Springfield.

Following the dedication a banquet will be held. Dr. David Kinley, president of the University of Illinois, will be one of the speakers.

ALLEN PROPOSES A MOTOR UNIT TO MODERNIZE ARMY

Urges Steps Be Taken at Once for Mobile Force.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]
Washington, D. C., Nov. 18.—[Special.]—Creation of a permanent motorized and machine weapon force in the American army has been recommended to Secretary of War Davis and the army high command by the special board appointed last spring to study the value of tanks and other modern equipment.
This board, which spent the summer watching the activities of the army's first experimental motorized force at Camp Leonard Wood, urges that steps be taken at once to develop a motor force. Such a force would have great striking power and greater mobility than any of the present combat organizations.

While the war department has not released the report for publication, it is believed that it calls for the eventual development of a special force composed of tanks, armored cars, powerful trucks, tractor drawn and automotive artillery, and motorized infantry. Should the report of the board win approval, every element of the force would be equipped with up to date equipment, models of which have already been planned and in many instances completed by the army ordnance department.

Would Have Up to Date Equipment.
It is understood the force would have from one to three thousand men assigned to it. It also is believed that at least 100 new light tanks of the type developed by the ordnance and successfully tested this summer, will be useful to arm the force. It is considered probable that arrangements would be made to develop the new force gradually over a period of from three to five years.

In order to build up an effective armored force in the army, it would be necessary to begin from the ground up. With the exception of experimental models, the army has no modern tanks or other equipment. Excellent light tanks have been developed, but funds for their construction to moderate numbers has not been forthcoming.

As a matter of fact the army's motorized equipment is all so old and out of date that officers conducting the experiments this summer were greatly handicapped. The old trucks, all of which were purchased in wartime, were unable to keep up to the new light tanks.

Maj. Gen. Robert H. Allen, in his annual report as chief of infantry, calls attention to the meagerness of the army's motorized equipment. In addition he recommends that complete units should be equipped with the new forms of motor transport and given thorough tests in tactical employment under widely differing conditions of terrain and climate so that high ranking army commanders could obtain a clear idea of just what the new material can do.
Gen. Allen stated that tests of the semi-automatic shoulder rifle indicate clearly the practicability of an eventual replacement of the present magazine rifle with a semi-automatic weapon. He said that indications are that a smaller caliber than the present .30 caliber service rifle will be adopted. This question, he said, should be carefully studied, however, before a decision is made. One infantry regiment will be equipped with cross country transportation and given extensive field tests during the year.

Condemns Uniforms.
The infantry chief again assailed the "jane" uniforms and asserted that one special measurement uniform is not enough for a three year enlistment. He says:
"Having only one presentable uniform furnished him in three years compels the soldier either to buy a tailor-made uniform out of his slender pay or else, part of the time, to wear while on pass, or elsewhere in the public view, the 'jane' uniform, the quality, fit, and general appearance of which are too well known to require further condemnation."

ARREST THIRTY-SEVEN IN RAID.
The Plainfield street police early yesterday arrested 37 persons in a raid on an alleged disorderly house at 538 West Monroe street.

Jilted Girl and Woman Try Suicide; Both Saved

A young woman who had been jilted by her sweetheart and a young man who had quarreled with her husband attempted suicide last night. Miss Irene Sacher, 19 years old, 615 South Oakley boulevard, opened the gas jet in her room, but her act was discovered by the landlady, Mrs. Helen Pavlovich, 37 years old, swallowed poison in her home at 3612 South Hamlin avenue. Both were taken to the county hospital, where their recovery is expected.

HEAT REGULATOR
HONEYWELL
FOR COAL-GAS-OIL-OR DISTRICT STEAM

—why not give them the same protection at home?

Probably you have noticed, on the wall of almost any room in a modern school building, a thermostat to regulate heat. Why is it there?

The big reason is that school authorities cannot afford to gamble with children's health. Doctors tell them that overheating is a chief cause of colds. Dr. C. E. A. Winslow (professor of public health, Yale School of Medicine) discovered in New York City schools that overheating by only two degrees caused a 70% increase in colds and other respiratory illness.

Even though the schools have a man constantly on hand to watch the heating plant, they do not trust him with this important duty of preventing overheating. They realize that the most watchful janitor or engineer cannot notice every up and down of temperature and act instantly to safeguard the children.

Automatic Heat Control Prevents Overheating

In the average home there is an astonishing variation of temperature at different hours of the day and night. This is a serious problem in any home—until you get a Minneapolis-Honeywell Heat Regulator. It takes complete charge of heating plant regulation, on any heating system burning any fuel. Responds to a temperature change of one degree—advances or checks the fire—protects your family's health and keeps your home comfortable without anyone ever touching dampers or drafts.

Clock control provides warm rooms to dress in. Less fuel—less frequent firing—lowered fire hazard—our "10-point Demonstration" explains them all. Given in your living room, any day or evening. Demonstrating outfit is not connected with your heating plant in any way. Phone for an appointment.

Calles Lifts Ban; He Issued Order

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 18.—[Special.]—The circulation of the Tribune, which had been halted by the Mexican government, was today resumed. The ban was lifted by President Calles, who issued an order to that effect. The Tribune had been suspended for failing to comply with the government's demand for a special license to publish news from the United States.

Police Stand Over From
Twenty policemen appeared at the Tribune's plant at 2 a. m. to enforce the ban. They were told that the paper would not go out. Nevertheless, the paper was run off while the police attempted to get in to shut it down.

Under Official Boycott
The Tribune has been under a boycott since Nov. 7 because of the article it published on the trial of Jose de la Huerta, the former president of Mexico. The government has refused to permit the newspaper to publish news from its establishments.

In Moscow to Study
Neighbors, Dewey
WILKINSON, Nov. 18.—[Special.]—A Dewey of Chicago, America's first neighbor, is to study the trial of Jose de la Huerta in Moscow. The neighbor, who is a prominent businessman, was prompted solely by his interest in the financial organization of the Russian government.

WONDER WHAT JOE SALTIS IS THINKING ABOUT?

Joe Saltis, beer baron, yesterday spent his 18th day as a fugitive from Chicago police and his 49th day as a fugitive from United States deputy marshals. Saltis was convicted of gun toting nearly two years ago by Municipal Judge George A. Curran, who sentenced him to serve 60 days in the house of correction and fined him $50.

which he has successfully dodged Chicago police, Municipal court bailiffs, and deputy marshals, has divided his time between his summer home at Hayward, Wis., and Chicago's south side, where he directs his flourishing beer business. Recent capture of one of the gang leader's account sheets showed he had sold and collected for more than 2,000 barrels of beer during two of the weeks that every law enforcement officer in Chicago and Cook county was supposed to be on his trail.

DOUBLE A. F. OF L. MEMBERSHIP, IS COUNCIL'S GOAL

Annual Convention Meets Today.

New Orleans, La., Nov. 18.—(U.P.) "Double trade union membership," is the slogan and the job the executive council of the American Federation of Labor will lay before the forty-eighth annual convention, which meets here tomorrow.

The council's annual survey of the year's activity in organized labor said the paid up membership for the year ending August, 1928, was 2,892,913, an increase of $1,587 over the previous year.

Advise Seeking New Groups. "Since reliable records," the report says, "show that in recent years the condition of groups on jobs requiring previous training—that is, workers in repetitive or highly specialized jobs, common labor, women workers—have not advanced in proportion to those of union groups, particular attention should be given to the organization of these special groups of workers."

Reaffirming support of the five day week movement, the council's report said that 165,029 union workers now were enjoying the shorter week.

The council stated that government reports indicated there were 1,076,658 wage earners in 1927, but that no governmental agency had been recording the results of displacements of workers by mechanical devices and power. The report gave instances where mechanical methods permitted seven men to do the work in casting pig iron that was formerly done by 40; two men doing what 124 performed in loading pig iron; one man replacing 45 in operating open hearth furnaces; one man operating a machine making 40,000 bricks an hour, which formerly required one man 711 hours.

Guard Against Idle Periods. The report said that public officials are more and more turning their attention to preparing in ordinary times "for the period of stress which is likely to follow in a few months or a few years, by definite plans to reserve work on unimproved parks, sewers, and street for future dull periods."

The report said that "the majority of members of congress elected will be friendly to the legislative program of the American Federation of Labor."

WEDS 6 MEN AT ONCE; COPS HALT HER ON SEVENTH

WARSAW, Poland, Nov. 18.—(U.P.)—Victoria Kozmowska claimed the world's record for modern polygamy tonight after having lined up six prospective husbands and married them all at once.

Difficulties in the way of religious beliefs were solved by incorporating the best parts of the marriage rites of the Roman Catholic, Jewish, Protestant, Mohammedan, and Reformed Polish churches in the ceremony.

After the ceremony Victoria, found she had overlooked one prospect. She started to marry him, too, but while she was taking out the seventh marriage license police arrested her on charges of polygamy.

Father of Five Ends His Life on Third Attempt

Three months ago on a train bound from New York to Chicago, Albert Chet, 54 years old, attempted to commit suicide by slashing his wrists. Two months later he made another effort, drinking poison in his home at 2717 South Kildare avenue. Shortly afterwards he became a patient in the Parkway sanitarium, 2623 Prairie avenue, where on Saturday night another patient, Mrs. Mary Crowley, 50 years old, strangled herself with a knotted towel. Last night, following the woman's method, Chet ended his life in a bathroom of the institution. A widower, Chet is survived by five sons and daughters.

YOUR 800 POUNDS OF STEEL COME LARGELY FROM METROPOLITAN CHICAGO

MORE than 800 pounds of steel per person per year is used in the United States. Steel is the very basis of our present-day civilization—the backbone of modern industry. It forms anywhere from a part to the whole of nearly every manufactured product. It makes possible the modern machines used in both industry and agriculture.

Steel holds first position among all industries in Metropolitan Chicago. Metropolitan Chicago produces more steel than all of England, and more than one-half as much as all of Germany in which is located the Ruhr Valley with its immense steel plants!

Eighty-four per cent of the iron ore of this country comes from the Lake Superior region. By lake boat it is delivered to Metropolitan Chicago more economically than to any other point of advantageous distribution in the country.

Being located close to the nation's geographic centers of industry and population, the steel mills of Metropolitan Chicago find a vast immediate market for their output, a market that is growing contin-

The chief significance of steel to Metropolitan Chicago is not its position at the head of our industries, but its effect upon our industrial progress as a whole. For steel attracts other industry.

Nearness to an advantageous source of steel supply is a factor of importance to manufacturers, especially when the many other basic advantages offered by Metropolitan Chicago are also considered.

And so it is that steel is one of several factors which are definitely contributing to the present greatness and future advancement of this youngest large metropolitan center.

35 PEOPLE

ANSWERED ESTHER JOHNSON'S WANT AD IN THE SUNDAY TRIBUNE

"I wish to thank you and congratulate myself on the way the little advertisement in Sunday's Tribune helped me to rent my house. Through an ad appearing on Sunday, I quickly rented it to what I believe will be a very desirable tenant. At least 35 inquiries came from the ad. My last tenant, whom I secured in the same manner, stayed in my house for four years."

ESTHER B. JOHNSON,
2445 N. Crawford Avenue.

Four years ago Esther B. Johnson rented her house through a Tribune Want Ad. This fall, again needing a tenant, she placed a want ad in the Sunday Tribune, hoping for similar success.

Thirty-five people answered the ad! The Sunday Tribune, reaching more than a million homes, brought thirty-five people interested in the Johnson house! A lease was signed almost immediately.

You will find, as Esther B. Johnson did, that results come more quickly and more certainly from the Tribune Want Ad section than from any other Want Ad medium in Chicago. The reasons are plain enough.

More people read the Tribune; more people use it for their want ads. More look through its want ad columns when they want to rent or buy. It is the leading want ad section in the city.

Whether you are buying, selling or employing, the Tribune can help you. Invest in a want ad today at

ROBBERY VICTIM TELLS OF DEATH THREAT

Warned Not to Proceed, He Said

Ben Levin and his wife were taken to the detective bureau Monday night, he said, have the man who threatened to kill him because of his desire to bring a robber to justice.

Levin, a summer resident of the Suburban, Clear, a man controlled by Al Capone, frequently called for him to bring his jewels, worth $15,000.

On Aug. 1, shortly after he was closed by police, Levin was held up and shot. He was taken to the hospital, where he was held for several days.

Levin appeared before the grand jury on Monday night. He was held for trial on Monday night.

Levin's friends produced a day or two after he was taken to the hospital. They were held for several days.

Levin said he escaped by jumping out of a window, but they were held for several days. He was taken to the hospital, where he was held for several days.

ROBBERY VICTIM TELLS OF GANG DEATH THREATS

Warned Not to Prosecute Bandit, He Says.

Levin and his wife, Rebecca, went to the detective bureau last night seeking protection against a band of robbers who, he said, have threatened to kill him because of his determination to bring a robber to justice.

Last summer Levin said he was working his living as a poker dealer in the Midway, Chicago, a gambling resort frequented by Al Capone. His wife recently called for him there, wearing a diamond necklace, worth $1,000.

On Aug. 5, shortly after the resort was closed by police, Levin and his wife were held up and she was robbed of her jewelry. For six weeks thereafter Levin went every Wednesday to the Dan Plaines street police station, where, on his sixth trip, he identified a man, 25 years old, 1535 Cleveland avenue, as the robber.

Held for Trial; Bond $100,000. After a hearing in municipal court, Levin was bound over to the grand jury in bonds of $50,000. Then, after Levin appeared before the grand jury, trial was held for trial in bonds of $100,000.

Levin's friends produced the bond. A day or two after he was liberated, Levin was called at Levin's home, 1253 Dan Plaines street. They offered to return his wife's jewelry and his cash, but he would drop the prosecution, he said.

When Levin refused they threatened him with death, he told the police. Within a week, after the threats had been repeated over the telephone, the Levin moved to 1219 Roosevelt road where they were unmolested until Saturday night, when Levin said six men came to the front door. Mrs. Levin went to the door. Two of the men, with guns drawn, brushed past her into the hall, demanding Levin.

Escaped By Leap Out Window. Levin said he escaped by jumping out of a window, but they chased him, and he ran to the street, screaming for help. The six men then disappeared.

Capt. John Ryan checked Levin's story on the police records and verified the portions relating to Priola. A squad was sent out to pick him up, and another squad was assigned to search the Levin's home. A policeman was stationed at the Levin home pending action to be taken after he repeats his story in the state's attorney's office today.

LATVIA GREET NEIGHBORS ON 10TH BIRTHDAY

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.) RIGA, Latvia, Nov. 18.—In the Latvian National theater, where ten years ago the Letts declared their independence, President Gustav Zemgals this afternoon welcomed the visiting delegations of Finns, Estonians, Poles, and Lithuanians here to participate in the celebration of the national anniversary.

Foreign Minister Rebane of the Estonian delegation received the most enthusiastic ovation. The Estonians and Letts cooperated in the victorious war against the bolsheviks ten years ago and are now bound together in a defensive union. The Finns and Prince Radziwill, leader of the Polish delegation, also received a warm welcome. The welcome of the Lithuanians was less hearty because of the recent activities of Dictator Augustinas Valdemaras, who has antagonized the Letts. Following thanksgiving services in the churches this morning, parliament held a special session. During a parade of the Riga garrison 100,000 spectators joined the 10,000 troops in singing the Latvian national anthem.

ROME BECOMES CENTER OF FAST AIRLINE SYSTEM

Network Reaches Spain, Africa and Turkey.

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)
ROME, Nov. 18.—After two and one-half years of strenuous development, Rome today has become the center of a network of civil aviation lines, which gives the Eternal city and Italy a controlling position in the Mediterranean.

With the inauguration on the anniversary day of the Fascist march on Rome of two new lines totaling about 3,000 miles, Italian commercial air-planes are now hauling passengers, mail and freight between nearly every important port in southern Europe and North Africa, from Barcelona to Constantinople and Tripoli, and from Rome to Munich and Venice. All these lines are coordinated through Rome.

The two new lines are running from Rome to Genoa, to Barcelona, thence to Palma and back to Rome, and from Rome to Naples, Syracuse, Tripoli and Benghazi.

Aids Colonial Dreams.
These two lines bring the total now actually operating up to sixteen. This extensive network, aside from being a valuable commercial advantage to Italy, also marks a step in her dreams of northern African colonial expansion and Mediterranean control, and probably have a distinct military value.

Italy now has third place in European commercial aviation with her 6,000 miles of exploited lines, as compared with Germany's 15,000 miles and France's 9,000 miles of air routes. An important feature of this rapid development is the fact that since commercial aviation was started two years ago there has not been a single accident of importance. On fourteen lines which were operated during the first three months of this year 19,187 passengers were carried in addition to mail, baggage and merchandise.

Developing Huge Airports.
In addition, huge airports are being developed. The Littoral airport near Rome was dedicated last summer and marks the last work in aviation landings. Another port will soon be opened at Florence.

The new Rome to Barcelona line illustrates how travel has been facilitated by the use of planes. The train time for this trip is forty hours, while planes are doing it in seven.

On the Rome Naples-Syracuse, Tripoli-Benghazi route, the regular planes, piloted for long distances, are used. They carry twenty passengers, two pilots, a mechanic, and a radio operator. An American bar is to be installed. Further developments to connect Rome more extensively with her colonies in Libya, Somaliland and Eritrea and the near east generally are being studied.

MATCH CICERO'S FLIGHTS WITH PLANES IN ROME
ROME, Nov. 18.—(AP)—Sweet revenge on the late Julius Caesar and Marcus Cicero will be had tomorrow morning by fifty-two lusty American college and preparatory school youths when, by special courtesy of Prince Boncompagni-Ludovisi, governor of Rome, they will be taken up in airplanes to view the eternal city from above.

Caesar had to walk back from Gaul, and Cicero's flights were merely oratorical, it is the way one of them expressed it. "Now we get even for the years of grubbing through their stuff."

The party is one of the world college tours. Prince Boncompagni will receive them on Tuesday, when it is hoped Premier Mussolini will be present.

WALL STREET WORKS SUNDAY TO CATCH UP
New York, Nov. 18.—(AP)—The canyons of the financial district, normally deserted on a Sunday, echoed today to the tramp of a small army of clerks, who worked all day in brokerage offices on books filled with the records of last week's tremendous trading.

In the week ended Saturday Wall street handled the transfer of more than 31,000,000 shares of stock. It was an unprecedented total, but many commission houses completed their immediate bookkeeping a Saturday night. Today's workers were getting some of Monday's work out of the day in anticipation of a new rush of business tomorrow.

INCREASE GUARD AS KRIM CHAFES ON PRISON ISLE

ST. DENIS, Island of Reunion, Nov. 18.—(AP)—Abel-Krim, one time master of the Rif, who held the French and Spanish armies at bay and defied every effort of modern military genius to capture him, has grown weary and restless in exile in this far off French colony.

Visitors describe the former "sultan of the Rif" as pacing up and down in the gardens of the Castle Morange like a lion in a cage.

"I am a prisoner and a prisoner to be kept happy," he told one questioner. "Above all, I am far from my country—my people."

Krim is a veritable "Little Napoleon" in exile with Frenchmen replacing Englishmen in the role of jailkeeper. He always has been an active man whose mind was fertile in a thousand schemes, just as was Napoleon's. For that reason his restless hands have doubly alarmed his guards, who are well aware that the nearby South African ports swarm with adventures always willing to furnish aid to the Rif war lord.

Radio Honors Schubert with Own Melodies

Anniversary Programs
Full of His Songs.

BY ELMER DOUGLASS.
Today the musical world celebrates the one hundredth anniversary of the completion of Franz Schubert's life. And inscribed on his tombstone in Vienna are the prophetic words, "Music has entombed here a rich treasure, but much brighter hopes."

There were many Schubert selections on the air yesterday, and many sitting tributes to this great musical genius, to whom the radio world is so greatly indebted.

The one stellar soloist yesterday was Bennington Gilg, operatic tenor, from New York, through W-G-N, 8:15 to 9:15 concert last evening. This concert in its entirety gave the effect of breath and dignity. Mr. Gilg's voice is rich and dramatic.

It was my good fortune to have heard the 4 o'clock concert of Negro spirituals by the Hampton Institute (Va.) colored male quartet at the new University of Chicago chapel. At the preliminary service of the Sunday Evening club shortly after 7 o'clock, a WMAQ broadcast, this same quartet sang more spirituals. A later program of spirituals by the Pullman porters' quartet was broadcast from W-G-N, at 9:45. The singing of both quartets was remarkably similar. There were slow tempos, no shouting, no excitement, no emotionalism, no sign of any irregularity. Everywhere was a pronounced restraint and refinement.

Wife of Viscount Grey of Fallodon Dies at 57
LONDON, Nov. 18.—(AP)—The Daily Mail today reports the death of Viscountess Pamela Grey after a sudden illness at her home at Wilford Manor, Salisbury. Her husband, the former secretary for foreign affairs, was at his Fallodon estate and was hurriedly summoned. The viscountess was 57 years of age. She first married Lord Glenconner, who died in 1926. They had three sons and a daughter.

Dr. A. Ziwet, for 37 Years on Michigan Faculty, Dies
Ann Arbor, Mich., Nov. 18.—(AP)—Dr. Alexander Ziwet, 61, for 37 years a member of the faculty of the University of Michigan, died here today. Prior to his retirement in 1925 he was head of the engineering mathematics department, and before that headed the modern language department. Dr. Ziwet was born and educated in Breslau, Germany.

McCormick Farms Buy Prize Bull Sold When Calf
(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)
WINNEPEG, Manitoba, Nov. 18.—W. J. White of the White farms, Lockwood, Sask., reports the sale to the McCormick farms, Byron, Ill., of the herd bull, Rock River Sir Johanna Delray. The animal was purchased from the McCormick farms when a six month old calf and now is six years old.

FRANCE'S FIRST AIR TAXI PILOT WILL BE WOMAN
(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)
PARIS, Nov. 18.—France's first air taxi pilot is to start up in business, and its "chauffeur" will be a woman. Mme. Marthe Bastie, the well known French aviatrice, is the originator of the idea. Her plane is of the baby variety called avionette. It requires the minimum amount of space to hop off or to land, and Mme. Bastie can pick up her passengers or drop them anywhere that there is a fairly smooth vacant field.

Working along somewhat the same idea, a newly organized company intends to inaugurate an air taxi service across the English channel, from Calais to Dover, in the near future.

YERGENEY FELLOW TRAVELERS
Dennis Bruno, 48 years old, 1237 Green avenue, last night terrorized thirty residents of a building in which he is living by shooting in a hallway that he was going to turn on the gas and kill them all. The Maxwell street police were called and arrested him. He will be given a psychiatric examination today.

CONGRESS WILL DO LITTLE BUT TALK THIS TERM

Important Measures to Clog Machinery.

BY ARTHUR CRAWFORD.
(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)
Washington, D. C., Nov. 18.—(Special.)—Controversies on half a dozen or more propositions of major importance promise to keep congress in a session this winter.

Advance indications are that the legislative machinery will become clogged early in the session and that there will be much discussion and comparatively little action.

The efforts of many of the members to avoid a special session, the outlook is that President Hoover, upon his inauguration on March 4, will announce a convening of the new congress during that month or in April.

The final session of the seventieth congress convenes two weeks from today. In the three months elapsed to its work the appropriation bill for the fiscal year 1929 must be passed and a large amount of non-controversial legislation which already has been passed by the senate and house calendars must be passed.

Each time as remains to be devoted to the big measures of the session, which may or may not be passed upon by the time the gavel falls on March 4.

House filibusters, which invariably mark the windup of the biennial session, seem certain to develop on the tariff bill. Any one of several matters may furnish the excuse for a filibuster which will not only tie up the measure but also prevent other items of legislation from being considered.

House dam legislation has provided filibusters in the last two sessions. At the bill providing for this session a dollar project is the usual business before the senate, it offers an opportunity for another filibuster. The Kellogg anti-war treaty likely will become involved in a filibuster before the session is over.

Opponents of the administration tariff bill plan to use obstructive tactics to keep it from coming to a vote. Filibusters on these measures will serve to keep tariff legislation from enactment and may necessitate a special session to carry out Hoover's campaign pledges.

high numerous speeches in both houses.

The senate radicals will have a final fling this winter as a group able to exercise the balance of power. Their wings were clipped by the election of an increased Republican majority in the new congress.

Some time during the session the senate is expected to dispose of the long pending case involving William S. Vane of Pennsylvania. It is a certainty that the senate eventually will deny Mr. Vane the right to take the oath of office, as it did in the case of Frank L. Smith of Illinois. The senate by a vote of 15 to 21 refused to permit Vane to take the oath pending an investigation of his case.

Defer Action on Vane Case.
The senate took final action in the Smith case following the submission of a report from the Reed campaign funds committee, but deferred action in the Vane case because of the fact that a recount of the ballots cast in Pennsylvania was in progress before the elections committee. As soon as the elections committee reports the senate will act both on the election contest and on the question of excessive expenditures as raised in the case before the campaign funds committee.

Several investigations will be in progress during the coming session. The one which is expected to attract most attention is that of the oil leases in the Salt Creek field, which will be conducted by the senate public lands committee.

International affairs will be a prolific source of discussion in connection with the outlaw treaty, the cruiser bill, and developments abroad in connection with German reparations and war debts. The aftermath of the recent presidential campaign will furnish much material for discussion.

Investment per Reader the Yardstick of Circulation Value

AN ADVERTISER cannot determine the value, to him, of a newspaper's circulation unless he knows whether the advertising rate of that publication is costly or inexpensive—and exactly how much, in actual dollars and cents, he receives in return for the rate paid.

He must also know whether or not the circulation at that rate has actually proved itself profitable. The proof hinges on three factors—how much does it cost, what does the advertiser get for it, and how much have experienced business men been willing to invest in this known quantity at that known price? In this way the monetary investment per reader is readily computed, and this is the only real yardstick by which the circulation value of any newspaper can be accurately gauged.

Purchasing power and purchasing willingness are what every advertiser seeks in the circulation units of any newspaper. The retail merchants of Boston have proved to their own satisfaction the greater per reader value of an advertising investment in the Herald-Traveler. In 1927 these merchants invested more advertising dollars per reader in the Herald-Traveler than in any other large daily circulation.

19.6% higher
than the second daily paper

21.3% higher
than the third daily paper

110.7% higher
than the fourth daily paper

Boston merchants have rated the per reader unit valuation of every Boston newspaper circulation by the total amount of their advertising expenditures. These appropriations prove, that on a basis of sales and profits, the Herald-Traveler reader is without question the best investment value in Boston newspaper circulations. For the first ten months of 1928, Boston daily newspapers of large circulation divided advertising as follows:

Traveler . . .	10,740,838 lines
Herald . . .	9,437,566 lines
Post . . .	8,297,690 lines
Globe . . .	7,819,508 lines
American . . .	4,136,710 lines

MOON MULLINS—AH, A NEW ROOMER

Purple Face Shakeup for Dartmouth

Using as a nucleus the three Purple players whom he believes showed to advantage in the Indiana game, Coach Dick Hanley plans to revamp his Northwestern university football team before its big intercollegiate game with Dartmouth at Dyche stadium Saturday. The revision will get under way tomorrow, and the back field probably will be affected more than the line.

Capt. Walter Holmer, full back; Henry Bruder, sophomore half back; and Mickey Erickson, center, are the only players certain to appear in the starting lineup that will face the easterners.

Has No Excuses. That was Hanley's decision last night after reviewing Saturday's game, in which Indiana outplayed the Wildcats to earn a 6 to 0 victory. The Purple coach had no excuses for his team, although he admitted disappointment in the performances of many of his players. Hence the shakeup.

There will be little activity in the getting tonight, the second string men getting the brunt of the burden while the varsity rests its bumps and bruises.

The squad, setting a Purple record in this respect, is still intact, no game injuries having deprived it of the services of a regular for a long time. Bruder, Levinson, Anderson, and Verbell were badly shaken up in the Indiana game, but will be able to play in the final Saturday.

Indications are that the Dartmouth game will draw a sellout crowd of 50,000. The attendance is almost sure to set a record for a football game in Evanston. About three thousand tickets, some of which are on the sidelines, remain.

Praises Play of Bennett. Recounting the game, Hanley believed Holmer and Bruder in the back field, Center Erickson and Woodworth and Sinker, tackled, turned in the most commendable performances for Northwestern. The defensive work of the secondary, however, was dismal.

A. A. U. Hints It Will Reject Vault Record

New York, Nov. 18.—(AP)—The record committee of the Amateur Athletic union still was in session late tonight, but out of the committee room came reports that it would not approve the pole vault mark of 14 feet 1 1/2 inches, made by Lee Barnes of the University of Southern California at Los Angeles, April 23, 1923.

It was understood that the vault was made with five inch pegs supporting the cross bars, instead of the three inch pegs required under the rules.

Gossip inside the conference rooms had it that Avery Brundage of Chicago, vice president of the A. A. U., was slated to succeed Murray Hulbert as national president of the organization.

Other reports indicated that the wrestling, weight lifting, and cross-country championships would go to New York, and that the women's swimming championships would be awarded to Chicago. Boston may lose both the boxing and marathon championships, with New York and Chicago eager to get the former and Baltimore a likely nominee for the honor of holding the long distance run.

The track and field committee recommended that the 1929 national senior and junior outdoor championship be held at Denver. This meet is held annually on or around July 4.

How to tell a good
slicker

Look at the label. If it's a genuine Tower's Fish Brand Garment you know it is built for real protection in the wettest weather. Heavy-duty garments, slickers, medium-length coats, jackets, pants and hats for rough, hard wear.

The "Variety" model, long and full-lined, has the patented "Flex" storm-lap to protect the front of the wearer and comes with buttons or buckles, strap-collars or plain, as you prefer.

Tower's Fish Brand Slicker—"The Rainy Day Pal"—is sold everywhere. If it has the famous Fish Brand mark shown below, you know you are safe in buying it. A. J. Tower Company, Boston, Massachusetts.

LITTLE DRAMAS IN THE LIFE OF A GREAT NEWSPAPER SYSTEM.

"Bust in the Door, boys!"

Painted for Scripps-Howard Newspapers by George Bruhn

... I'm not bluffed by Constitutional Rights!"

JUSTICES of the peace from remote counties of a western state were raiding city homes. They issued search warrants signed in blank. Their men hammered and crashed their way into private houses on anonymous information.

Citizens were denied jury trials. They paid heavy fines, which the justices pocketed. Wets and Drys alike protested.

The local SCRIPPS-HOWARD Newspaper fought the raiders from the start. Other Scripps-Howard papers in the state chimed in. More than 100 men were sent to jail. And the State Legislature combined with the Supreme Court to curb the roving justices forever.

Residents of this state will never forget the part played by the SCRIPPS-HOWARD Newspapers in plugging this legal loophole. From beginning to end they followed every angle of this case, collected and produced evidence, and led a statewide fight for civil liberty.

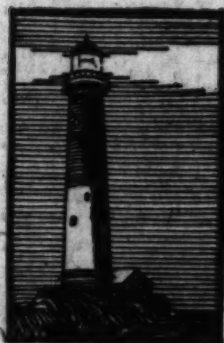

To gather and print the news... all the news... is the primary job of a newspaper. How completely and brilliantly this is done may be seen in today's issue of any SCRIPPS-HOWARD Newspaper.

But the Scripps-Howard pattern is not stamped on the surface of the news. It is woven into the fabric of our courts and churches, of our homes, our businesses, our pleasures. And the advertisements, like the editorials, do not skim. They penetrate.

Wise Mother Will Nip the Slapping Habit in the Bud

My Mother's Wisdom
This brief appeal came to me in the mail:

"My Dear Mrs. Evans: Please give me advice about my 2 year old son. He has the habit of slapping everybody. I slap him every time he does it, but it seems to do no good. Please tell me what to do about it."

Another young mother writes: "She is a darling baby, but she has been disobedient lately and I have had to slap her hands. Yesterday for the first time she hit me. It nearly broke my heart."

To begin with, this second mother should not feel so badly about her baby hitting her. Most babies—I could almost say all babies—go through the slapping phase. Even those babies who have never had their own hands slapped will do it. In fact, hitting is a very common thing among little children—in madness or not, as they case may be. When they play together and disagree they're apt to come to blows. It's a primitive leftover, I suppose. Frequently it is done by children with a great deal of physical vigor.

Of course, according to my lights, the first thing to do is to stop your own slapping. Logically, if you do it to the child when you're displeased, he'll do it to you or other people when he's displeased.

Now, in these two instances I don't know of any of the ins and outs of the individual cases, but if the little child does a great deal of slapping it is probably due to mismanagement of some kind. However, not knowing particulars, I should say one important thing is to see that the child has plenty of active play and plenty of outdoors. He should have ample occupation for those busy inquiring hands—good sized toys, blocks, wagons to load, crabs to pull—plenty to do. The child who is happily busy and well will not want to slap very much.

President of United Press Talks at Banquet Tonight

Karl A. Bickel, president of the United Press Association, will be the guest of honor at the annual banquet of Sigma Delta Chi, professional journalists, to be given tonight in the Polli Frater in the Wrigley building annex. He will address local alumni and delegates from 40 chapters over the country. "International Journalism," the 1928 convention of Sigma Delta Chi is being held in Chicago and Evanston today, tomorrow, and Wednesday.

TRIBUNE COOK BOOK

BY JANE EDDINGTON.
More Tropical Fruits and Flavors.

It is pleasant but a great responsibility to have what one writes fall under the eye of so many people. I am invited to visit the Garfield park conservatory in Chicago because I did visit Shaw's garden in St. Louis. My invitation says that I can see there that just what I wrote about in the way of tropical fruits bearing fruits or condiments, and the chief florist was for fifteen years at Shaw's.

Among other items, this letter mentions the rose apple, or "Eugenia jambosa," which Eugenia I have met. In fact, I have some jambos jelly in my house this very minute. The letter says of it, "with rose flavored fruit used in confectionery and preserves. The preserved fruit is supposed to be preserved in the United States, but I cannot find it in any Chicago store." To which I add that from my experience I do not believe it can be used commercially with entire success. Rose flavors are delicate things. Yet, I noticed something about broiled rose leaves the other day (joke).

But let us notice some of the things we may see in that famous conservatory: Last year our alpine trees yielded plenty of berries, but this year we have none. The summer of 1928 was not favorable to the development of tropical fruits, but at that we had a fair crop of bananas, oranges, figs, guavas, corianders, strawberries, guava, rose apple, lemons, pineapples, etc.

"At present we have a few coffee berries on our coffee trees, three pineapples, bananas, coriander, a few guavas, a few melons, and a few guacamoles berries—these latter are a fascinating fruit with the flavor of preserved pineapple and a seed whose first taste is of pepper, with an after taste suggesting juniper berries. We have enough leaves on our bay trees to flavor the soup of all Illinois. We have several very flourishing cinnamon trees, a magnificent vanilla vine, a very presentable olive tree . . . splendid cardamom plants."

I cannot give all the list, but it is wonderful, and I was invited to come to see these things, as I could not be before the big chrysanthemum show—one of the finest in the world.

Chic Sports Costumes Are of Wool Kashmir shops in more elaborate phases of sports costumes. It occurs not only in the favored beige and brown tones, but in a variety of colors. Gray is also much favored in this medium.

Another favored sports material of the autumn is wool kashmir. There are charming new effects in this familiar weave and one of these is employed for the ensemble pictured today. Here a gray kashmir is striped faintly in black and is trimmed with gray fox. The accompanying blouse is of gray crepe de chine.

With this are worn a gray felt skull cap, gray kid shoes and matching stockings. Speaking of the last, one is bound to mention that some women, quite innocent of scholarship, may become blue stockings this season. For not only do the shops show an occasional navy tint in chiffon hostery, but now we are to be cheered by models in so many gowns, coats and hats.

But to go back to the corduroy text with which we started, this same model shown today would be exceedingly stunning in this material in the same tone of gray. The coat would retain, of course, the same feature that makes the kashmir model so successful—to wit, that panel back inset to afford contrast in the direction of the lines.

Winter Brings Its Little Gift of Colds and Chapped Lips

We slide from one seasonal complaint into another just as we slide into the winter clothes after those of the season preceding. The winter beauty troubles, perhaps, are just a bit more sudden in their change of character. We no longer get the tans and freckles of a face than there's a call for chapping and itching skin remedies, for cold sore treatments and for skin roughness caused by the biting winds.

Lips that break easily into cold sores, while they are more current in cold weather, are not always a cold weather trouble. Lowered vitality is frequently the reason for them. Abused teeth may lower the vitality or any chronic ailment may contribute to the ugly spot on the lips. Digestive disturbances that bring on a feverishness may be responsible and they frequently occur just preceding the menstrual period, for some unknown reason. It's a debatable question whether they are infections or simply disturbances in the nerve endings of the skin, brought about by the factors which lower the resistance.

Usually cold sores clear themselves up in time. But a quicker healing may be accomplished by anointing them with spirits of camphor or painting with two or three coats of tincture of benzoin. Again, you may find some simple antiseptic ointment of benefit.

Of the itching peculiar to the dry skin, numbers of women are relieved by rubbing on a mixture of one-third glycerine and two-thirds water. City cerine, if diluted with rose water or plain water, is a good skin softener and also may be used as a protection against chapping and dryness. If the glycerine is found irritating, as is sometimes the case, use a fine cream and massage it well into the skin. Or you may apply olive oil satisfactorily and if you warm the oil a bit before the application you will find it slightly more soothing and protective.

Perhaps it might be well to incorporate our tried and found amazingly beneficial hand help against the usual winter ills of reddening, chapping and roughness: equal parts of glycerine and spirits of camphor.

Junior, our little next door neighbor, had been living in the city for the winter and therefore had not seen my new baby. When the family came back in the spring, he trotted over with his mother the first day they were home.

The first thing he said was the baby, asleep in his carriage. He stood for a moment, then demanded to know its name.

"Sandy," I replied, smilingly.

"O, murver," he exclaimed, greatly excited, "hims named after Orphan Annie's dog."

FARM AND GARDEN BY FRANK RIDGWAY

During the next three or four months when it is too cold to work outdoors, there will be a lot of time for reading and gardening on paper.

There are enough things being said and written about gardening nowadays to indicate that a new garden movement is springing up in this country, particularly in and around cities.

It is like many other things that sweep the nation, no one can make a satisfactory explanation of it. There is evidence on every hand that people are more interested in both flower and vegetable gardens today than at any other time in the history of this country.

Community, district, state and national flower and vegetable shows of some sort are being held in various parts of the country almost every month in the year. Men's and women's garden clubs are springing up by the dozens from coast to coast.

The renewed interest in gardening is reflected in the way publishing houses, agricultural colleges and experiment stations, and the federal government printing offices are turning out books, bulletins and circulars by the thousands.

Certainly there is a widespread demand for garden literature or there would not be so much paper and ink used.

Both men and women have written volumes on the growing of flowers and vegetables, giving out non-technical information on the simplest questions in horticulture. They are drawing upon the vast storehouse of information that has been harvested in recent years from home and commercial gardens and experimental grounds. No beginning gardener needs to go blundering along with puzzling questions unanswered. Mistakes made during the last season can be corrected next year. Winter is the time to get answers to questions that will lead to the correction of mistakes in the garden.

Making It Worse.
Last week, in the rush of preparing for a party, I found I had forgotten the bananas for the fruit salad. I hurriedly went downtown, made my purchase, and returned on the street car.

When alighting from the steps the paper sack caught on a nail and the bananas flew in every direction. That was most embarrassing, but when three college boys sang lustily, "Yes, we have no bananas," I thought I actually would die of mortification!

He Knew the Language.
My boss was looking over my shoulder while I was typing, so I took care to impress him with my speed and accuracy, but when I looked at what I had written I discovered my fingers had been resting on the wrong keys and it was nothing but a jumbled mess of letters.

I turned around and apologetically explained that I had been studying Russian at night school and it was so much in my mind that I unconsciously wrote it.

Just try to imagine my mortification when the boss said, "O, is that so?" and reeled off a string of Russian, which I, of course, could not understand.

First Pictures of Eruption of Mount Etna Show Destruction of Sicilian Cities by Stream of Lava

SICILIAN TOWN WHICH WAS WIPED OUT BY ERUPTION OF MOUNT ETNA AS IT APPEARED BEFORE THE DISASTER. Townspeople of Annunziata removing holy relics from the chapel (the white edifice near the left of the picture) as the streams of lava near the city. The bridge in the center background was one of the city's landmarks.

AS ANNUNZIATA APPEARED AFTER THE STREAM OF LAVA FROM MOUNT ETNA HAD SWEEPED THROUGH CITY. This picture was taken a short time after the one to the left, after the lava had swept around the chapel and demolished the bridge, which had withstood the ravages of more than a century.

BUILDING IN MASCALI ABOUT TO BE ENGULFED. Flowing stream of lava sweeping down upon dwelling house in one of the Sicilian towns.

WALLS OF BUILDINGS CRUMBLE UNDER PRESSURE OF STREAM OF LAVA. Stone structure in one of the villages which were wiped out by the eruption of Mount Etna collapsing as the liquefied rock reached its walls.

BUILDING IN MASCALI COLLAPSING AS THE STREAM OF LAVA SWEEPS HIGHER THROUGH STREET. This picture was taken a few seconds after the one above. It shows the wall, which had begun to crumble in the former picture, falling as the stream of lava rises to its second story windows and sweeps forward.

HOW THE STREAM OF LAVA FROM MOUNT ETNA DIVIDED, MAKING DESTRUCTION MORE WIDESPREAD. The picture shows the main flow as seen from the Castello, and the smaller ones thrown out by it. These smaller streams aided in making the area of destruction wider than it has been in twenty years.
